

You're Invited! NEW Nonprofit Reporting Standards

Jones and Associates PLLC, CPAs is proud to present this two-hour webinar on the new nonprofit reporting standards. Effective for all nonprofit organizations with years beginning after December 15, 2017, the FASB has issued new financial reporting guidance - the first significant change in more than 20 years. The Accounting Standards Update requires improved presentation and disclosures to help nonprofits provide more relevant information about their resources (and the changes in those resources) to donors, grantors, creditors, and other users. These include qualitative and quantitative requirements in the following areas: net asset classes, investment return, expenses, liquidity and availability of resources, and presentation of operating cash flows.

The webinar is led by Jennifer Haddon and Doug Brownlow.

JENNIFER has over 16 years' experience in auditing and working with nonprofit organizations. She is part of the senior leadership team and a partner here at J&A.

DOUG has over 9 years' experience in auditing and working with nonprofit organizations. He is also part of the senior leadership team at J&A.

The live session is April 13, 2018 from 10am-noon and participation is limited. To register for this informative and important webinar, click HERE.
